Winifred Grace Barton

We call her "Win." A most remarkable person exemplifying the multi-dimensional balance taught in Applied Metaphysics.

A dynamo of Creative energy, and a motivational inspiration to all she meets, Win gets things done.

Teacher, author, leader, speaker, mother, wife and friend to literally hundreds of people across the world, she is the originator of the most comprehensive methodology for the development of the normal and supra-normal potential within humankind.

Stimulating . . . controversial at times, but never lacking discernment of the real issues, Winifred Grace Barton brings forth timely solutions to the processes and problems facing today's world.

Yet with all her experience and talent, she never fails to be amazed at the smallest delight — a wild orchid in the forest, or the intricate world of a busy spider.

This simplicity and joy set in a fully-blossomed identity is a stunning combination!

Inspired by the light of genius, she provides a vision and methodology that is of both planetary and Universal significance.

Winifred Grace Barton . . .
a new caliber of Leader in the Global Theater.

THE MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE.

THOU MASTER OF THE

A NEW PROGRAM OF SPIRITUAL MATURITY

The Atlantean System

As taught by Winifred G. Barton of I AM — Institute of Applied Metaphysics

The goal of a true Spiritual Master is that the student should exceed himself in spiritual growth.

Lolita, my Teacher, expressed this desire quite early on in our teacher-student relationship. My own burning desire is that this should happen to you. For such is the Law of spiritual evolution.

Yes, there are shortcuts. Yes, there is an easier way. Yes, you can succeed beyond your wildest expectations.

Consistency and constancy of application is the quickest way. Unfailing desire to attain the highest goals is the shortest route. Prayer-power can fuel your rocket to success.

The expansion of consciousness was meant to be as simple and effortless as physical maturation. A young child ingests, assimilates nourishment into its body. Mind likewise, absorbs and digests ideas, retaining the essential elements necessary for its growth. The refuse is discarded.

In each case strength and endurance are built by regular exercise of the developing faculties. Even as the infant must persist when first learning to walk, so must the spiritual seeker. Each must be willing to accept the bumps and bruises of growing up.

Life is a classroom. Develop a positive attitude and keen appreciation for what you learn. Don't take yourself too seriously. Use humor to brush aside the hurts. Put aside procrastination. Persist in progression. These are the shortcuts to spiritual growth.

Now decide upon a path, a way. "By their fruit shall ye know them" is the best adage in making this selection. It is wise to avoid the exotic or highly ritualistic techniques. Structures which base their authority on the assumption of unquestioning obedience to a leader are seldom acceptable. Unflinching personal effort is the shortcut. The seeker must accept personal responsibility for his own spiritual progress.

The perfected technique is useless unless practiced. And often, the simpler the technique, the more difficult it is for the intellect to accept it as essential. Know that the Law is Perfect. The integration of spark and persona was meant to be as effortless as the integration of childlike patterns into the maturing personality.

All too often in human society the child is stuffed with palate-pleasing junk foods and even junkier ideas. These serve neither the physical nor spiritual needs, for the primary instrument of perception is culturally biased. Unable to see objectively.

This calls for an exploration of all previous knowledge. The rebirth principle common to all the ancient wisdoms. Yet nothing is discarded save the dross. Patient practice is the shortcut. Ask any athlete. It is second only to unqualified commitment.

Patience is not passive. It is active. It builds concentrated strength. Patience puts down deep tap roots like the oak tree. Impatience may produce a fancy vine, like mistletoe, but is subject to withering in inclement weather.

Impatience tempts the student to hop from book to book, study to study, skimming the surface of much while understanding little. It leads to justification and rationalization.

These teachings are presented in accordance with the Atlantean System. Nothing is altered save the vocabulary. It is the essential living spirit, unchanging over time, that is important.

The wisdom of Atlantis, best documented today in remnants of the ancient Egyptian mystery documents, teaches that even if a person leads a simple and virtuous life they must still submit to spiritual instruction. For the intelligence lives and feeds, growing in capacity and power (at the expense of spiritual life energy), is easily intoxicated with its own apparent splendor.

In youth, intelligence ignores anything that cannot be demonstrated through the physical senses.

The result is a gradual division of body and soul. This life-death struggle never stops for an instant.

In every moment a person is either being born to the new or being calcified in old ideas.

But life revolves in cycles. Big wheels and little wheels all turning within the greater wheel of universes yet unborn.

The first Atlantean Era set the wheels in motion when extraterrestrial life found physical beings capable of transforming physical thought energy into higher scales of vibrational thought. In other words they were sufficiently intelligent to aspire to integration with spiritual thought scales. Thus men gained the potential to become immortal gods.

Now the great Alpha-Omega cycle draws to its completion.

To the harvesting of Earth's godcrop. This theme has been stated from the dawn of human history. It is imprinted on each living soul. The inner being longs to lead its instrument into the ways of life.

The object of The Atlantean System is to teach people how to plug into this source. In sleeping and in waking states, I Am, the inner core reaches out in loving instruction.

All you need is an open ear, a seeing eye, and a dedicated heart.

The Relationship

I AM has been teaching courses in self-mastery since 1963. Many students travelled through our midst during the early years. But a few came to stay, and by 1973 a core group was formed.

September 25, 1973 was a high point in our history. On this day, 40 members began a collective mystical experience that changed their lives forever. Life would never be the same again. It was a time of great joy and celebration: the New Era had begun.

Momentum grew. Hundreds of students were irresistibly attracted to the joy and light that filled our centers. Branches grew rapidly; the future looked bright.

In 1976, 300 people of I AM's core membership were guided to pool their resources, talents, heart and mind and work together in earnest for the establishment of the New Era. I AM courses had taught the theory. Now came the application.

We have lived an amazing, dynamic, highly energetic journey. To be able to say at the end: we did it.

We came through the space between the old and new worlds. With integrity, with morality and ethics, a sense of family and unity.

We have a methodology. Our cosmic sites are set. Our feet planted firmly on the ground. This, with the unmistakable twinkle in our eye from sharing the rapture of our relationship to the earth, to the Universe, its peoples and all of creation.

Teaching, building, printing, managing and perfecting set the base for a living system. We were set on fire by the results of the teaching of I AM — transformed into positive, radiant, potent and fulfilled individuals. Then we learned to work together for the common good.

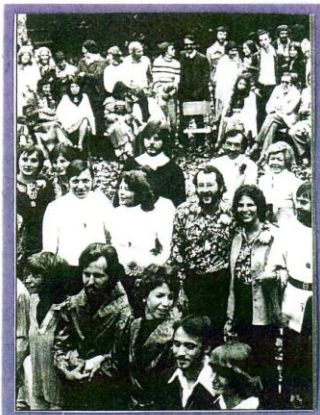

The ladder of consciousness containing what we had learned was perfected, and began to be taught by trained teachers. Correspondence courses were mailed far and wide.

We set up an alternative children's school that rated as one of the top private schools in the province of Ontario.

We began printing I am. magazine, a beautiful show-window for our teachings.

A newspaper in two languages that serves as a forum for global goodwill and brotherhood began to roll off the press.

Numerous briefs to government committees on poverty, crime and correction, violence in the media, media bias, bilingualism and biculturalism were submitted.

Radio systems for world-wide communication were established.

Representatives were sent to major conferences in all fields around the globe.

Outposts of I AM were born in centers world-wide. Our central registry files were full of inquirers, members, students and supporters.

We built a city — on our own, /from scratch. A service building that can service two hundred people, jurists — round houses for couples — in the woods, and a children's home. We learned to farm, to grow crops and gardens, keep pigs, chickens, cattle, bees. We caught fish in our lakes, gathered apples in the woods, skied on the trails, began a love affair with nature. Our 1400 acre retreat is our pride and joy, with its atmosphere of clean and crystal clarity.

And we travelled. We saw first-hand what was happening on a global scale. We learned, emotionally, that global survival depended on unity.

And now the base is set: the above operations an on-going daily affair. Now we take the perfected crystal to those who seek the next step.

We believe that the energy of like-minded individuals and groups must be combined in order that a change of global attitude be accomplished.

Together, we will be the witnesses of a wondrous phenomena — a relationship beyond words. The best of both worlds: a new heaven, a new earth.

THE COSMIC CLOCK
A Practical Handbook of New Age Magic

Magic is all around us. All we need to learn is how to harness this Magic to functional requirements.

Magic is God energy manifest. It can only serve His high purposes for our being. Thus we must learn the art of invocation to align the power-wires from Self to Source. The ancients were aware of tides and currents, the ebb and flow of the celestial sea.

To harness themselves to these energy bands, early wise men kept a calendar of Cosmic currents — in the form of zodiacal charts, which run from hour to hour, age to age. All time shall be no more.

We have inherited this gift and now impart it in this year's Agenda, the Cosmic Clock from September 1932 — 1983.

All Roads Lead To The Point

Megatron!

by Destiny Moore

It takes all kinds to make the new world go 'round. The best of the old world will be redirected into the attitude of the new.

Nothing will be lost but the problems that built our strength to create the new. The Creative Potential is limitless.

The Universe of Mind is a great sea of energy in which stars, people and ideas take form. Not only is this philosophically and intuitively true, it is scientifically proven.

It is time to return to the Source.

Positive, progressive ideas form groups of people that share common pools of thought. They are everywhere you look: ecology groups, anti-nukes, evangelists, politicians, artists: those magnetized to a cause that is greater than self. Creative inspiration streams from Universal Mind, and the ideas condense into plans.

When the plans are actualized, the end of the stream of thought is reached. The old concepts no longer fulfill the need for a sense of purpose as they did before. A choice is made: to cling to the old, familiar backwaters or to flow into a channel of larger scope.

An active interest in local ecology, for example, leads to the larger river of concern for planetary survival. The pace accelerates as the stream of thought is tried against more and more experiences. Education accelerates.

Natural selection takes its toll. The strongest reach the Universal Sea first. Those unable to channel the more powerful current will linger in the backwater. But even they find it becomes easier to make the transition as one nears the destination. The attraction is greater, and the current flows more insistently through the heart, mind and soul.

But before the final dam is crossed, each person must realize the end of their stream of thought. Even planetary groups cannot save the planet unaided. There must be a greater power.

Hence the following crystallization of the 12 gates that form the system of bringing in the millennium. Everyone fits into one of these streams of energy that lead to the sea of Universal Mind.

Twelve Great Streams Of Thought

1. The first and fastest stream is to become part of the body of I AM, the Mind manifest. Student, member, staff, citizen or sponsor: these are the first fruits of the earth. Energy, finance, goods and services are essential for the survival of the Kingdom.
2. The second stream is filled with passionate voices crying out for an end to war. It is the marching band of the army of righteousness. The Peace Movement, the Anti-Nuclear Movement and the others in this stream have a vision of Heaven on Earth that is attainable. "We want Peace!", they shout.
3. Those that love the planet and its people so much that they would defend it with their lives constitute the third stream—the Whole Earth Army. They realize that the earth is one community. They have concrete plans for the physical clean-up of our polluted planet. They will feed the hungry children. Food, clothing, shelter, justice, opportunity for all. Heaven on Earth in a practical sense.
4. The fourth entrance is available to diplomats and politicians that are willing to move into action when the time is right. It is time for the people. Leaders must reflect the best interests of the people.

5. Businessmen also have a place in the new world. Few would like to return to the days of individual self sufficiency, realizing the value of world trade. But there must be a system of fair distribution of goods and services. Entrepreneurs recognize the principles of sound management that the Universal Mind employs. Business based on greed will become extinct. "For the love of it" is the new motto.

6. The sixth river is occupied by those that have prepared for global teamwork by building files of names, addresses and other useful information so that the network is set when the Announcement is made. It is coming soon: a central information bank with an instant retrieval system.

7. Media men are the messengers for the seventh stream of thought. Those closest to the sea realize the power of the tool they wield in the interests of the old. It will become the most effective educational tool for the greatest creative Mind of all. Film, radio, television, print: their suspension system is ready to carry the greatest scoop in the history of the world. Watch for it.

8. The eighth river contains the organizational principles. They understand dynamic law in action. They realize that the efficient use of life energy is an end in itself. Their love is to create systems that serve. Order out of chaos, revolving around the central hub, is the goal.

9. UFOlogists and new world scientists comprise the ninth river. They perceive the Mind behind matter, and envision a technological paradise in the new world. Science fiction becomes fact. Global communication is instantly accessible. Science at the service of mankind.

10. The Sea of Mind is the source of all inspiration. Writers and publishers find unlimited material when the last dam is overcome. Communication is a noble pursuit, but there has to be a point to it. Their responsibility is to crystallize truth above all separate viewpoints, and link it into the whole.

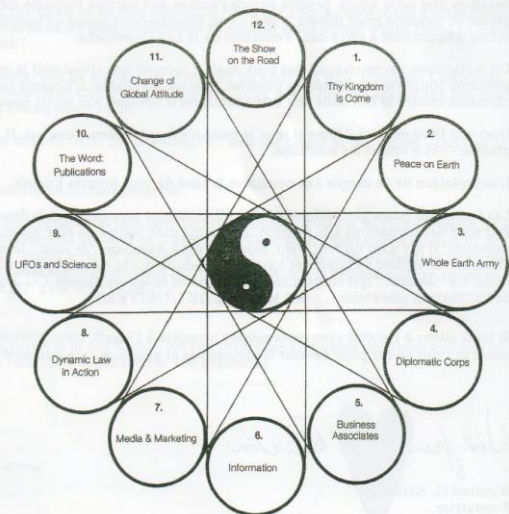

11. In the eleventh river are those that believe in the Sea and call it God. Christians, Buddhists, Islamic peoples and members of all faiths and philosophies can achieve universality of thought. They are the evangelists of the good news. They speak the Truth. They will change global attitude in preparation for the Changeover.

12. The twelfth access is for the leaders that ignite and inspire others to action. Directors, producers, instigators. Those that reach the Point and take others with them. They put the Show on the road.

All streams are unique notes. Yet play in the symphony of a common goal: a new and beautiful world. Together we will make it. It does take all kinds to build a new world. If you have won the race to the sea, check in. If you need help overcoming the last dam, check in. If you have gone to the end of your thought, check in.

The call goes out for the twelve tribes of Israel: no longer a philosophical, theological thought, but an actual plan. Where do you fit? Come for the banquet is ready.

Lettre à la Terre

Chers Amis Terrestres et Confrères d'Habitat:

L'Univers doit-il vraiment son existence à une fusion accidentelle de conditions idéales et d'atomes? Même l'esprit scientifique le plus froid peut difficilement croire une telle théorie.

Et si, au commencement, il y avait un plan, un concept parfait par lequel les hommes pourraient vivre ensemble dans une paix et une harmonie parfaite et ce, dans l'abondance? Chacun aurait une appréciation commune de la merveilleuse mosaïque des différences multiculturelles de notre planète, chacun aurait une place unique dans l'ordre des choses et, par le fait même, sa vie aurait une signification toute particulière qui lui donnerait la paix intérieure et la joie; un amour de la vie et de tout ce qui prend part au courant de vie sur la Planète Terre.

Depuis des siècles, nos philosophes ont parlé d'une nouvelle Ere Terrestre. Un Age d'Or qui émergerait lorsque l'homme aurait franchi la dernière frontière - ces recoins sombres qui se trouvent sous la conscience éveillée de l'homme, le maintenant sous la dominance de sa convoitise mesquine et de sa faiblesse.

Serait-ce que cette heure prédite depuis l'aurore de l'histoire humaine est arrivée? Pouvons-nous faire un effort suprême et concerté pour relever le défi - ou devons-nous passer à l'histoire comme une autre planète morte ayant refusé d'apprendre à vivre dans l'enceinte de la Loi Universelle.

Un métaphysicien ne connaît pas tout, mais il connaît une chose et il la connaît bien: La Loi Universelle existe. Elle gouverne toute vie sur toutes les planètes. Elle est inviolable. L'homme ne peut briser la Loi, il ne peut que se briser lui-même contre la Loi dans une futile tentative d'opposer son esprit mesquin à l'Esprit Omnipotent.

Dieu vit! Dieu est réel. Même si tout le reste n'est qu'illusion, Dieu est. Il connaît parfaitement bien l'état de notre planète - et a toutes les solutions.

L'acceptation de ce simple fait constitue la base de tout progrès humain.

Les tentatives faites pour étiqueter l'Esprit Universel avec des clichés dénominatifs comme Chrétien, Musulman, Juif sont des invitations à la division. L'homme doit mettre de côté ses étiquettes programmées de préférences personnelles. Il n'y a qu'un seul Dieu; celui qui dit à Abraham "Je suis!" lorsque le monde était très jeune et que l'homme cherchait à établir des lignes de conduite qui le mèneraient sur la voie de la liberté de ses servitudes mortelles. Ce "Je suis!" qui commande les prophètes et les mystiques. Celui qui est au-dessus de la culture, de la foi et de l'affiliation planétaire. . . LE MAITRE DE L'UNIVERS.

Si nous allons à Habitat avec cette pensée première à l'esprit, nous pouvons triompher de tous les problèmes humains et nous élever pour devenir la victorieuse et glorieuse race humaine, celle projetée depuis le commencement.

Letter to the Earth

Dear Fellow Terrestrials and Habitat confresers:

Did the Universe really come into being as an accidental merger of conditions and atoms? Even the most coldly scientific of minds could hardly believe that.

What if in the beginning there was a plan, a perfect concept whereby man would live together in perfect peace and harmony with plenty for all? Each one would have a common appreciation of the wonderful mosaic of multicultural differences on our planet. Each would have a unique place in the scheme of things, and through this have a very special meaning to life which gave them an inner peace and contentment; a love of life and all who share the life-stream on Planet Earth.

For centuries our philosophers have spoken of a New Earth Era. A Golden Age which would emerge when man had conquered the last frontier - the dark recesses which lie beneath the waking human consciousness, holding man in bondage to his own petty greed and weakness.

Can it be that this hour, predicted from the dawn of human history, is upon us? Can we now make a supreme and concerted effort to meet the challenge - or shall we pass into history as another dead planet which failed to learn to live within the precincts of Universal Law?

A metaphysician does not know everything. But he knows one thing and he knows it well. Universal Law exists. It governs all life on all planets. It is inviolable. Man cannot break this law - only break himself against the law in a futile attempt to pit his puny wits against Omnipotent Mind.

God lives! God is real. Though all else in illusion GOD IS. It knows full well the plight of our planet - and has ALL the solutions.

Acceptance of this simple fact is the basis for all human progress.

Attempts to label Universal Mind with denominational tags like Christian, Muslim, Jew - is to invite division. Man must put aside the programmed labels of personal preference. There is but One; that which told Abraham "I AM" when the world was very young and man sought a set of guidelines to lead him on the path of freedom from his mortal bondage. That I AM which commands the prophets and mystics. That which is beyond culture, creed and planetary affiliation. . . . THE MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE.

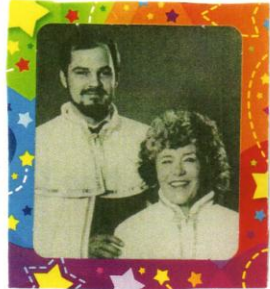

If we go to Habitat with this thought uppermost in our minds, we can overcome all human problems and rise to become the victorious - glorious human race - as was planned in the beginning.

NATIONS UNIES

UNITED NATIONS

Greetings Human Brethren of Planet Earth on behalf of
The Master of The Universe
I bring you
The Announcement

The Galactic Federation of Light Forces, responsible to the Master of the Universe for interplanetary evolution, has now completed the disintegration of the old world fabric, while providing a matrix for the New Earth Era with minimum disruption of existing global structures.

Planet Earth and her peoples are now under the direct control of The Forces of Light, in conjunction with Omnipotent Reality. The promise of the ages is fulfilled; All may rest in peace.

Whereas human endeavor has proven powerless to provide justice, equality and mutual joy for all living creatures. And whereas existent political systems have failed —

Earth is now declared a Theocracy.

Theocracy is mutually beneficial, containing within itself the best of all known global political systems, in partnership with the Supraordinate Factor of

I AM ALL IN ALL.

Functionally it is a partnership between the most evolved members of the human race and officers of The Galactic Federation.

The matrix of this system, the United Nations, is already set. Officers of The Galactic Federation are in their proper place. It is yet incognito. This partnership will accomplish rapid social transformation to the mutual benefit of all mankind.

The United Nations Council, a global conversion unit, will operate through twelve departments. Each Nation, or group of Nations, will have representation in the United Nations Council, as appendices indicate.

Light Force is such that only resistance can hurt. Remain calm and cooperative. Remember We are One in Spirit. Love is the all-powerful universal common denominator.
